It is urgently requested of all communicants at S. Mark's, to make as full use of the early and quiet Celebrations as may be possible, on Easter Day, at 6, 7, or 8.15. Let only those receive at the late Celebration who are really compelled to use that hour. This will largely aid in avoiding the great crowding, and the excessive length of the mid-day function, on that High Festival.

Let it also be noted carefully, by communicants, who attend the early Celebrations, that should any one, by accident or delay, come in late, after the Celebration has begun, it is not right to receive at that Celebration if one has come in after the reading of the Gospel. Should any one come in after the Gospel is read, let him wait over and make his Communion at the following Celebration. No communicant is really in a fit state to receive unless, at least, he has heard the principal part of the Divine office said, from the Gospel on, and has fully and heartily joined in it.

It is requested of all communicants at S. Mark's, to make as full use of the early and quiet Celebrations as may be possible, on Easter Day, at either 6, 7, 8, or 9. This will largely aid in avoiding the great crowding, and the excessive length, of the mid-day function, on that High Festival. It ought to be well known, and remembered, that the High Celebration is chiefly intended as an Act of Worship, by the faithful—not so much as a time for communicating. That is always better done, when done early, quietly, and with some degree of self-sacrifice. As usual, there will be no break, or interruption, in the Choir, during the Service, after the Prayer for the Church Militant, and there ought to be none in the congregation. The whole Service is meant to go on uninterruptedly to the Blessing of Peace, at the end.

Let it also be noted carefully, by communicants, who attend the early Celebrations, that should any one, by accident or delay, come in late, after the Celebration has begun, it is better not to receive at that Celebration if one has come in after the reading of the Gospel. Should any one come in after the Gospel is read, let him wait over and make his Communion at the following Celebration. No communicant is really in a fit state to receive unless, at least, he has heard the principal part of the Divine office said, from the Gospel on, and has fully and heartily joined in it.

THE ENDOWMENT FUND OF S. MARK'S.

Let the Easter Offerings, (at 10.30 A. M.,) of this year be attentively noticed. They will be devoted to the increase of the Parish Endowment Fund, begun some three years since. This Fund has made an excellent beginning, and has already been affectionately, and helpfully, remembered, in the Last Wills and Testaments, of several of our recently deceased parishioners. The Fund, it will doubtless be re-called, is not to be touched, principal or interest, till an annual income of $3,000 from the Fund is reached; and then only is part of this annual interest to be used. When the annual income reaches $5,000 yearly, representing, perhaps, a capital sum of about $100,000, then only is the full yearly interest at our disposal, for parish uses. The Fund is permanently placed in charge of a special Trust, created for that purpose. An occasional general offering, by the whole parish, after a lapse of each two or three years, as at this Easter, is thought desirable—in order to keep the matter of this most important Fund, and the purposes of its existence, well before the minds of our people: indeed, as an Apostle puts it, to "stir up your pure minds by way of remembrance."

The New Front and Side, in Brown Stone, on the Parish House.

Our Easter Offerings this year will be devoted to this purpose. A sum of $300, a memorial gift from a parishioner, is already in hand, with accrued interest, as a first foundation for this Fund. The proposed new front and side, of the recently purchased Parish House, will be in Brown Stone, and will correspond in style and character with the older parts of our large Parish Buildings. The estimated cost of this improvement is from $3,000 to $3,500.

This House, as will be easily remembered, was purchased in 1884, for $21,500. At the same time, large additions were made to our other buildings, at a cost of about $5,500 more. The funds for this outlay ($27,000) were most generously given by the congregation, chiefly in payments running yearly, for four years ahead. The last payments on this subscription account are due this coming May, and our purchase will then be fully and finally completed, and the temporary mortgage placed on the house will be wholly extinguished.

The wisdom of this purchase cannot now be doubted by any one; not only because of the increased facilities given to the parish work, by the possession of this splendid property—facilities which have been enormously made use of in manifold ways—but also, because of the large increase in the value of all property along this part of Locust Street since that time. We do not hesitate to say, this building, purchased in 1884 for $21,500, could not be had for $25,000 if purchased to-day—in the opinion of some, for not less than $27,000. The parish, then, did a most wise, profitable and safe thing in securing this property at that time.

We now propose to complete this building, in its outside arrangements, as we have already completed the inside appointments. It will be made to conform to our present church and parochial property, and will thus largely enhance the already great attractiveness of this property. We therefore ask for your Easter gifts, and sacrifices, and other devotions, to this goodly end.

The "Summer Fund for the Poor" must not be forgotten, ere the parishioners scatter to their summer pleasure resorts for the warm season. We always need some $500, over and above the small amounts gathered by the summer collections in Church, to sustain our benefactions and helps to the many poor, who are left in the city during the summer, and whose wants and sufferings do not then lessen, nor their claims on the parish funds. The ladies who are interested in collecting this "Summer Fund," will be asked to begin again their kind, but unpleasant, work, soon after Easter, and we request for them a welcome consideration.

To miss the Confession of Sin, the Absolution, the Sanctus, the Offering of the Sacrifice, and the Great Angelic Song, is certainly to miss a great deal, and may well be counted the willful loss of another opportunity for grace.

Let it also be noted carefully, by communicants, who attend the early Celebrations, that should any one, by accident or delay, come in late, after the Celebration has begun, it is better not to receive at that Celebration if one has come in after the reading of the Gospel. NOTES, &c., for Parishioners.

The Collection, at 10.30, on Good Friday, will be for the St. Mark's Home for Aged and Infirm Women, No. 1428 Lombard Street. This is the first offering ever asked of the congregation on behalf of this new and interesting charity, now in possession of the Parish—the noble gift of a parishioner, and most gratefully accepted by the Vestry and Corporation—free of all encumbrances. The amount of this benefaction is about $9,000. We hope now to begin a large and generous interest, throughout the Parish, in its yearly support. The House was duly opened and blessed on the Feast of the Purification, and has at present three inmates. The full capacity of the House is about fourteen, exclusive of those who shall be in charge and care of it. It is proposed to proceed very slowly, and most carefully, in filling up the House during the present and coming year. At Ascension-tide, the House will be placed under the care of the Sisters of St. Margaret, commonly known as the East Grinsted Sisterhood, the Community of Religious, founded by the late Rev. J. Mason Neale, the noted divine of the Anglican Church. Two members of this community, from the American Branch of the Order, in Boston, have kindly been promised, with perhaps a third soon to follow. These, of course, must be supported, together with the inmates of the House, and we confidently look to the warm sympathy and the welcome assistance of the St. Mark's parishioners for their comfortable maintenance. These offerings on Good Friday will be the first offerings for this purpose, and we ask for a liberal response. The sustenance of the whole House, during the coming summer, must largely depend on the amount of this Good Friday collection. It is hoped, ultimately, that these St. Margaret's Sisters will also be engaged in parish work, in St. Mark's, under the care of the parochial Clergy. The House is open to the visits of any interested friends, in or out of the Parish, on any afternoon, excepting Sunday, from 2 to 4, for the present.

The Easter Day Collection (11 o'clock) will once more be devoted to the Fund for the New Front and Side to be placed on the recently purchased Parish Building. Plans will soon be prepared for this improvement by a competent Architect, and, when accepted by the Corporation, the improvement will speedily be carried through. Now that this large Building is paid for, in full, and freed from the temporary mortgage, it is our duty to complete this work, and crown this large addition to the parish property, by a suitable front and side, in brown-stone, to correspond with the other parts of the fabric. The funds already in hand, for this purpose, amount to about $900—starting with a thoughtful memorial gift of $300, and since added to by collections and donations. The amount yet needed is about $2,000 additional. Let our Easter Offerings, in generous measure, be added to this Fund, from rich and poor alike, throughout our large congregation.

On Low Sunday, end of Octave, April 13, the Easter Music will be repeated. Celebrations, at 7 and 8, (plain); at 11 (choral). Mattins said plain, at 10.30.

It is requested that all communicants at S. Mark's, make their communions at the early and quiet Celebrations, on Easter Day, at either 6, 7, 8, or 9. This will largely aid in avoiding the great crowding, and the excessive length, of the mid-day function, on that High Festival. It ought to be well known, and remembered, that the High Celebration is chiefly intended as an Act of Worship, by the faithful—not so much as a time for communicating. That is always better done, when done early, quietly, and with some degree of self-sacrifice. As usual, there will be no break, or interruption, in the Choir, during the Service, after the Sermon, and there ought to be none in the congregation. The Service is meant to go on uninterruptedly to the Blessing of Peace, at the end, and the whole congregation is requested to remain throughout. The customary and fashionable scamper, after the sermon, is edifying and helpful to none; it is hurtful to many, disrespectful towards the clear Law of the Church, dishonoring to our Lord, Who specially comes, in this Blessed Sacrament of His Body and Blood, to draw the people in, and not to drive them away, as so many yet erroneously seem to think.

* The little Manual chiefly used at this Service can be had at any of the Church Book Stores—called the "Commemoration of the Three Hours' Agony of our Most Holy Redeemer upon the Cross." Published by Young & Co., and Pott & Co., of N. Y.

NOTES, etc., for Parishioners.

The Good Friday Collection will again be devoted to the maintenance of the "St. Mark's Home for Aged and Infirm Women," 1428 Lombard Street, under the fostering care of the Sisters of St. Margaret. There are now five inmates in this Home, two of them added this past year. It is proposed to fill this Home most carefully, and very slowly, to insure that it ever continue to be a House of Peace, and a House of Blessing, to all those who abide therein. So far, the Loving Eye of God has most certainly rested on this Home, and on its inmates—for all has gone on quietly, religiously and well. The Sisters, two in number, also carry on a most useful Mission Work from this House, the results of which are already largely apparent, amongst the children, boys and girls, amongst the men and women, both white and colored, who are brought under the influence of their constant ministrations.

The Alms gathered on Easter Day, at the late Celebration, will this year be added to the "Endowment Fund of St. Mark's." This Fund grows each year, slowly yet surely, and is beginning to assume a respectable bulk, reaching now nearly $5,000, in cash, in the hands of the Trustees, and most carefully and wisely invested by them. There are also other and larger sums, in addition to the above, already left to this Fund, the reversion of which will only come after certain life interests expire. By these occasional Easter Collections, we desire to keep the subject of this Fund before the minds of the people. We ask that the matter of this Endowment Fund, one day to be most helpful towards the permanent continuance, and the life-long prosperity of St. Mark's, be devoutly remembered by parishioners in their wills. Certainly, the two most effectual ways of remembering God, and His Work in this world, by legacies, are (see Rubrics and Exhortations in the Office for the Visitation of the Sick), ⁽¹⁾ by providing for the permanent feeding of some of His poor, through the ministrations of His Church; and ⁽²⁾ by keeping up perpetually His Public Worship on the earth. These, in the actual words of the Book of Common Prayer, are the two best ways wherein we can honor His Name before men, and add to His Glory, "world without end."

The matter of certain material improvements at St. Mark's, noted in the first Lenten circular, is yet under careful advisement with the Vestry. Plans have been submitted, calling for a larger and smaller range, in the extent of these contemplated improvements, and some determination will soon be arrived at. It may be, if only part of this work is done this summer, that other parts will be carried over to the next season. All of what is sought to be finally accomplished—the new Reredos, changes in the Choir Rooms, the larger Vestry accommodations, and Organ Chamber, the New Front to the Parish Building—may be too much to be done in the few months of this coming summer, and some of it may therefore be deferred till the coming year. The congregation will be fully informed concerning this, when definite conclusions are reached.

It is requested that all communicants at S. Mark's, make their communions at the early and quiet Celebrations, on Easter Day, at either 6, 7, 8, or 9. The Service is meant to go on uninterruptedly to the Blessing of Peace, at the end, and the whole congregation is requested to remain throughout. The Rubric, in the Communion Office, just before this final Blessing, plainly tells when and how we must let the people depart, and their departure is spoken of in no other place throughout this Divine Office. The customary and fashionable scamper, after the sermon, is edifying and helpful to none; it is hurtful to many, disrespectful towards the clear Law of the Church, dishonoring to our Lord, Who specially comes, in this Blessed Sacrament of His Body and Blood, to draw the people in, and not to drive them away, as so many very erroneously seem to think.

The "Summer Fund for the Poor" is again commended to the consideration of the congregation, ere they leave the city for the summer. Without this Fund, it is not possible to carry on the charitable work of the Parish during the hot season. While the larger part of the people is away, let us remember, the poor we always have with us.

MY DEAR FRIENDS AND PARISHIONERS :

I count myself happy that the first letter I write to you is not to ask you for anything for the Church, but to plead the cause of Christ's poor.

God has abundantly blessed us in giving us a most beautiful Church in which to worship, with all the accessories of Music and Ritual, and the help of every means of Grace, and surely this ought to awaken in us a sense of responsibility, and, I hope, an earnest desire to minister to those whose lives, both in temporal and spiritual gifts, are so barren and desolate.

The practical outcome of the revival of religion in our day has been the almost universal recognition of a duty to the poor; and, indeed, the spiritual condition of a parish is estimated, and rightly, by its efforts and sacrifices to remove or alleviate some of the sin and misery which it finds around it, by its recognition of the truth, that to feed the hungry, to clothe the naked, and visit the sick, is indeed, to minister to Christ Himself, and that if this be neglected all else is vain.

Twenty-five years ago, after several meetings and much careful consideration, S. Mark's Church started a Mission near the present site of the Workingmen's Club, and pledged the Parish to support it as its special work for the poor. The history of this work is one of varying fortunes, few, however, in the Parish seem to know much about it; some are scarcely aware of its existence, and therefore, I propose on Wednesday evening next, April 13th, at 8 P. M., to hold a Parish Meeting in the Hall of the Workingmen's Club, at the S. W. Cor. of 17th and Kater Streets (half a block below Lombard Street), to consider the needs and possibilities of work among the poor of that neighborhood, to tell you what has been done, and what ought to be done.

It has been represented to me that some might not care to attend a meeting at the Workingmen's Club, and that the Guild Chapel would be a more suitable place, but the hall of the Club will hold probably four times as many as the Guild Chapel, and I think it will be helpful to many to see something of our work there, and I trust that there will be but few who will feel the difficulty sufficient to make them willing to ignore their Rector's first request, especially when they remember that it is Holy Week, when we are striving to follow the example of Him "who pleased not Himself," and that this meeting is called for the sake of those poor, in whose persons we may minister to Christ Himself, and into whose sad lives and clouded hearts we should esteem it a precious privilege to be allowed to bring some rays of sunshine, some moments of brightness, some experience of unselfish love.

Wishing you all the joys of Easter, I am,

Your affectionate friend and Rector,

S. MARKS,
Palm Sunday.

ALFRED G. MORTIMER.
